View Mode

View Mode is the end user state of the application accessible from any Flash enabled browser. From View Mode the user is able to interact with the interface without making any permanent changes to the design. The user can switch between Design Mode and View Mode in DGLux via a toggle icon located at the top right corner of the application environment.

From:
http://wiki.dglogik.com/ - DGLogik

Permanent link:
http://wiki.dglogik.com/dglux_v2_wiki:application_frame:view_mode

Last update: 2021/09/20 14:43